

CAPE Position on Nuclear, as approved by the board of directors November 20, 2022:

Due to concerns related to health, equity (including inter-generational equity), and safety, CAPE opposes the development of new nuclear energy, including SMRs. In addition, existing nuclear should not be replaced with fossil fuel generation.